ATPI Alerts Travel Opportunities per Country during Coronavirus (COVID-19)

Dear Valued Client,

Slowly but steadily we see the world opening up again. Although all countries still have extra travel restrictions in place, these rules and restrictions are getting stabilized. As the number of changes decreases, we have decided to end our 3-weekly overviews starting 1st November 2021.

We have been more than happy to inform you about all Covid-19 related changes over the course of the last 1,5 years and hope to have offered you some guidance.

Adjusted guidelines for Crew changes in Singapore

With the exception of short-term visitors, travellers from Bangladesh, India, Myanmar, Nepal, Pakistan and Sri Lanka with a 14-day travel history to these countries will now be allowed to enter Singapore. All travellers, however, will be allowed to transit through Singapore.

These six countries will now be placed in Category IV, meaning that arrivals will have to serve a 10-day stay-home notice (SHN) at dedicated SHN facilities.
